2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

“This is my beloved
Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.” - Mt 17:5b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - March 1, 2026 - Matthew 17:1-9

When I sit down to answer emails or write a Gospel reflection or return a phone call, I sometimes wonder: Does any of this humdrum work matter? Maybe you ask the same thing about your daily labor. Today's Gospel, the Transfiguration, offers a surprising answer.

Jesus leads Peter, James, and John up a mountain. There, “his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light” (Matthew 17:2). That detail regarding his clothes is worth considering.

We know Jesus' body is inseparably united to the divine nature. But his clothing? That's something made by human hands. It's an artifact. And yet it shines with the same uncreated light. What does this detail mean? The early Church noted that Adam and Eve's first act after the Fall was to make clothing. This clothing symbolizes all human labor that supports our dignity. In Jesus' glorified garments, we see not just the redemption of our body, but of human effort to protect and uplift human dignity.

Parents, your family is your work. Baristas, plumbers, nurses, accountants — your labor, your emails, your phone calls, your spreadsheets — can all become radiant when offered to God in love. The question isn't just do I believe in Jesus' glory, but do I believe he can share it with the work of my hands?

Lenten Challenge: Identify the “artifact” you are making to uplift the dignity of others: your job, your home, your relationships. Consciously bring it to the Lord this Sunday at Mass. Offer it to share in His glory. It will begin to shine.

Second Sunday of Lent

Today we are following Jesus up on a high mountain with Peter, James, and John. There they see Jesus "transfigured," his face like the sun and his clothes as white as light. Jesus is there conversing with Moses and Elijah.

What are we to make of this image of Jesus, the earthly teacher of this small band of disciples? They were merely followers of a teacher, a rabbi. When they see this and hear a voice proclaiming, "This is my beloved Son..." they begin to realize this man is more than just a rabbi. However, Jesus tells them to keep this a secret until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.

Well, they have no idea what this means. Therefore, they continue to follow him as if he was just a human, a teacher. However, we live in the time after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead. Now it is we who must proclaim the good news of Jesus, the Son of God the Father.

Take this week and think about how, in your own way, you can proclaim through your words and deeds that Jesus is your savior, your teacher, and rabbi.

Can a Catholic Be a Socialist?

By Trent Horn & Dr. Catherine R. Pakalluk

Socialism is an economic philosophy that has long been discredited. It doesn't seem to go away, however, and is making a rapid comeback on college campuses and TV talk shows. Some sincere Catholics believe that the new socialism is the answer to greed and globalism, which is antagonistic to helping the poor. The author, who refutes this tempting but false notion, teaches apologetics at Holy Cross College, and his co-author is a professor of business and economics at Catholic University of America. They debunk with facts the notion that socialism is compatible and friendly to religion and present a convincing argument that true common-sense economic principles are totally in line with Catholicism when applied properly.

THRU — GOOD FRIDAY,
APRIL 3, 2026

LENTEN OBSERVANCES

Abstinence on all the Fridays of Lent, and on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday
No meat may be eaten on days of abstinence.

Catholics 14 years and older are bound to abstain from meat. Those that are excused from fast and abstinence outside the age limits include those whose ability to work would be seriously affected, those physically or mentally ill including individuals suffering from chronic illnesses such as diabetes. Also excluded are pregnant or nursing women.

Fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday

Fasting means having only one full meal to maintain one's strength. Two smaller, meatless and penitential meals are permitted according to one's needs, but they should not together equal the one full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids including milk and fruit juice are allowed.

Catholics who are 19 through 59 are bound to fast. Again, those with illness, pregnant and nursing mothers are exempt.

Disregarding the law of fast and abstinence completely would be serious matter.
