How is your Lenten journey going so far?

Are you “in the desert” with Jesus, examining your conscience? Are you tempted to give up on your acts of prayer, fasting and almsgiving? Do you feel sad about the divisions in our biological and church families, our government and the world? Jesus “knows our every weakness. Take it to the Lord in prayer,” as the hymn goes.

As Catholics, we can and should do more. Unlike our Protestant brothers and sisters, we have the 7 Sacraments and the graces resulting from them.

Jesus wants us to share in His divine life through the Sacraments. Reconciliation and Eucharist are the ones we can celebrate frequently. Do we? When we are at Mass, are we really listening to the words of our prayers and those of the presider? Life changing!

We are called to be life changing for those who do not have a voice in society – the poor, the marginalized, the stranger. It is part of our Catholic Social Teaching -- “to recognize and fulfill the obligations of justice and charity in society.” (See the insert.)

As we continue to examine our consciences, and practice prayer, fasting and almsgiving, I want to offer you this prayer (inspired by the reflections of Pope Benedict XVI).

“Christ Jesus, who gave yourself for the good of all, we come before you as brothers and sisters, but we are divided and at times, even hostile-- tearing one another down. We approach the altar unworthily and ask for your forgiveness.

“Move us, instead, towards encounter, listening, dialogue, reconciliation, and a commitment to build your kingdom for the good of all.

“Heal us, restore us, unite your divided family, Lord. Through the power of the Eucharist, overcome our divisions. Give us sincere hearts that make us open, not closed, and willing to encounter, ready to listen.

“In your broken body, given for all, may we find unity and peace in you. Amen.”

Mar. 8 THE THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT John 4:39-42 · Many Samaritans Believe

Gospel Notes: The central point of this multifaceted incident between Jesus and the Samaritan woman hinges on the double entendre in the phrase "living water." Water imagery for spirituality is practically universal (e.g., as in Hinduism, Buddhism and Taoism), but there was no doubt in the mind of John and the faith of the early Church that it was precisely (and only) Jesus, the Christ, who was the life-giving water.

Lent 3: Lord, an ordinary moment in the life of the Samaritan woman was transformed into something special. She went to draw water from the well. On the surface, nothing was unusual. However, a closer look raises some questions. Why was she alone? Drawing water was usually a social experience, shared with the other women of the village. Why was she drawing water in the heat of the day? The usual practice was to go early in the morning. Could it be that this woman was not accepted as a full member of the community? Could it be that her life was an open book which others did not appreciate reading? Yet, Jesus talked with her. Jesus cared. Jesus looked beyond the details of her personal story and saw directly into her heart. She came to the well to draw water that day, and in the process, she drew much more! She met her Savior and discovered that her thirst for a meaningful life would be forever quenched. Lord, grant us the ability to look beyond the surface of people's lives. Help us to show them where to draw the water of life. Amen.

Catholic Relief Services Operation Rice Bowl

As we enter the third week of Lent, we encourage parishioners to support CRS with almsgiving to their rice bowls. CRS uses the money they receive to support our brothers and sisters in over 100 countries around the world. Food programs within our worship sites benefit too; with 25% of our almsgiving returned to us to alleviate hunger in our communities.

Nourishing Futures in Guatemala

In Guatemala, nutrition classes and savings programs give mothers and families better opportunities to improve their health, nutrition and financial well-being. Visit crsricebowl.org/week-3 to read how your support of CRS Rice Bowl is helping the Guatemala community thrive.

Please pray for these individuals preparing for Sacraments: Wendy Galgano, Bill Schmidtman, Doug Ehmer, Michele Colon, Jacob Utter, Jenn, Joey & Jolie Hines, Daniel, Eden & Octavia Rogers and Lucy Willson.

From Parish Pastoral Council Members

From Rebecca Franks

I am Rebecca Franks, I have been on the church counsel for the last 2 years. I was born and raised in Colorado, where I lived all my life until age 57, when I decided to jump into a new adventure, in a new, unfamiliar place. In December of 2019 my husband and I bought Los Gatos B and B, which we currently own and operate. I joined the counsel 2 years ago because I was very active in my previous church, Our Lady of the Plains Catholic Church, in Byers, and wanted to be involved here as well..

Please consider joining the Pastoral Council to become part of helping our parish grow and minister to the people. Give Fr. Leo a call if you are interested.

At this month's Pastoral Council meeting (3/9) councilors will discuss "Caring for Our Common Home" with actions suggested by the Catholic Climate Covenant. Anyone is welcome to attend.

Penn Yan's Care Net has many upcoming fundraising events (Daffodil Sale (now – 3-11) & Mother's Day (a week early) tea. (Reserve now.) Call (315-536-7333) for more info & see our FB page and website.

Saint Januarius - Naples Open Cupboard Food Donations

Here's an opportunity to lend a hand to our neighbors in need. There is a basket at the Tobey Street entrance for food donations. Please leave non-perishable canned and dry items here. They will be delivered to Naples Open Cupboard for disbursement to those in need. This is a concrete and beautiful way to support our neighbors. Thank you so much!

Why come to Adoration on Saturdays, 4:15-5:15 PM, at St. Mike's Chapel during Lent? Our Eucharistic Lord is waiting for time with you! You can converse with God, through silent listening, reading the Bible, or offering your favorite devotional prayer. Bring your joys and concerns. Nothing is too big or little for God.

Saints Who Love the Eucharist

A retreat will be held on Saturday, April 11 from 9—11:30 am at St. Michael's Church. It will include Mass, Adoration and a talk about Saints who Love the Eucharist. For more information, email Hannah.Fitzgerald@dor.org.
