The Lenten Scrutinies

By Deacon Dan Pavlina

The Scrutinies are rites that are celebrated during Lent on the Third, Fourth and Fifth Sundays. They are meant to prepare those who are getting ready for baptism at Easter. Such people are called the Elect. The Scrutinies are a series of rites that are a part of the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA), formerly known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). They offer a chance to reflect deeply on spiritual purification and enlightenment, helping them to confront their sins and more fully prepare for the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil.

The Gospel readings for the 3rd, 4th, & 5th Sunday of Lent that are connected with the Scrutinies are from John, reminding the entire assembly to do a good self-examination and to be repentant throughout the Lenten season, and beyond.

The First Scrutiny connects with the Samaritan Woman at the Well, a Gospel account from the Gospel of John, Chapter 4, that occurs during the 3rd Sunday of Lent. It's intended to get us thinking about our thirst for "living water" and our need for spiritual nourishment. It's also a great example of God's loving forgiveness.

The Second Scrutiny, on the Fourth Sunday of Lent, is also from John's Gospel, this time from chapter 9. The account of the man born blind and his healing by Jesus presents us with the spiritual concept of moving from darkness to light through the love and interaction of Jesus. This represents not only the restoration of physical sight, but a new spiritual sight and awakening.

The Third Scrutiny involves the raising of Lazarus from chapter 11 of John's Gospel, presented on the Fifth Sunday of Lent. This points to the hope & promise of resurrection and new life in Christ.

During these weeks of preparation, the Elect are often included during the Prayers of the Faithful, asking God to complete the work that God has begun in them. They also may be dismissed from Mass after the homily to further study and reflect on the Scripture readings and on the unconditional love of God as shown in Jesus. Since these are fundamental concepts of our faith (forgiveness, spiritual awakening, and the hope for resurrection), it is a good Lenten practice for all of us to reflect more deeply on these powerful readings.

Lenten Days of Abstinence

Fridays during Lent are days for abstaining from eating meat (which reminds us of how Jesus gave up His flesh on a Friday for the salvation of the world). All Catholics who are 14 or older are obligated to follow this practice, as long as one's health permits this practice to be done. Such practices of fasting and abstinence allow us to not only be mindful of Jesus' great sacrifice out of love for us, but to unite our sacrifice on those days with our brothers and sisters around the world who are suffering, due to poverty, illness, or persecution. Thus, our Lenten sacrifices serve as a form of prayer.

EASTER FLOWER DONATIONS

Please be sure to have your donations submitted to the Parish Office no later than Wednesday, March 25 for names to appear in our Easter Sunday Bulletin. Donations submitted after March 25, will appear in our Sunday Bulletin of April 12.

Upcoming Open Intentions

We have upcoming Mass & Sanctuary Lamp weeks that currently have no intentions. Please stop by the office to book one of these dates or any other date, to remember a deceased friend or relative, to celebrate a special occasion, to pray for someone who is sick or suffering, or to give thanks to God.

Sisters in Christ Ministry

Women of the parish gather together to go wherever the Spirit leads them. We pray together, discuss women's issues and daily challenges, extend assistance to those in need in our local community and have fun together.

Our next meeting will be Tuesday, March 10 6PM- MH

Fridays of Lent:

Holy Hour

Please join us on for our Lenten Holy Hour on Friday, March 13, at 7 p.m. in the Church. The Holy Hour includes music, Evening Prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, a period of quiet for personal prayer, and the recitation of the Rosary (you can bring your own rosary or you can ask for one),

Catholic Relief Services Collection Next Week

+++We are asking for your help in our 2nd collection next week to aid Catholic Relief Services in its work to promote peace, harmony and justice around the world. Since the 1940s, Catholic Relief Services has provided relief to those who suffer from illness, poverty and other crises that have arisen in their countries. Please help in any way you can to bring the hope of Christ to others through this collection. Thank you.

PRO-LIFE REFLECTION

Can a mother forget the baby at her breast and have no compassion on the child she has borne? Though she may forget, I will not forget you!

—Isa 49:15

Reflection: In assuring God's people of God's unfailing love for them, God seeks an extreme example to make a point: God speaks of the bond between a mother and the child of her womb. God declares that the breaking of that bond is practically unthinkable to God.

Prayer: Lord, You have established the bond between mother and child and used it as an example of the most faithful commitment. Strengthen all mothers and protect all their children.

Kenny: The True Story of Msgr. Ken Leone (58 minutes)

This heartfelt documentary pays tribute to Monsignor Ken Leone, a beloved Catholic priest from the Denver Archdiocese. It beautifully highlights his 5 decades of service to those entrusted to his care, highlighting the joy of his priesthood. Parishioners fondly recall his love and legacy, amidst his own suffering. His faith example continues to transform people, revealing his extraordinary love of Christ who came to redeem humanity.

Introduction/Lent with Fr. Agustino (Each Segment is under 5 minutes)

Do you desire to draw closer to Jesus during your Lenten journey? If so, then Fr. Agustino’s short weekly segments on Lent might be exactly what you’re looking for. He invites the viewer to “journey into the wilderness this Lent to become holy because we are made for heaven.”

In the segment on Ash Wednesday, the viewer is reminded of its meaning and to participate in the Lenten practices of prayer, fasting and tithing to draw closer to Jesus. The 1st Sunday of Lent focuses on Jesus’ temptation in the desert. As the new Adam, Jesus redeems the debt of sin from our original parents, reminding us of why we need redemption. The 2nd Sunday of Lent focuses on the Transfiguration and how Jesus transforms us. The 3rd Sunday of Lent reminds us that no matter who you are, or whatever your circumstances are, Jesus can transform you, just as he did for the woman at the well in chapter 4 of John’s Gospel. For the 4th Sunday of Lent, Father Agustino compares the Synoptic Gospels to lead the viewer into a greater understanding of love of Christ. For the 5th Sunday of Lent, we learn about Mary & Martha of Bethany who sent for Jesus, since their brother Lazarus died. This passage from John 11 shows that God responds to prayers in His own time. As we complete our Lenten journey during Holy Week, we’re reminded that God sent Jesus because we were made for heaven.

Saint Francis of Assisi (Film is 3 hours)

Did you know that from January 10, 2026, to January 10, 2027, Pope Leo XIV asked all Catholics to commemorate the 800th anniversary of St. Francis of Assisi death? The film “St. Francis” invites the viewer to experience the life and death of this extraordinary, beloved saint. St. Francis is the founder of the Franciscan order who advocated for the poor and a simple way of living. He is the patron saint of animals, ecology and Italy.

Saint Francis is known for his humble way of living and for advocating peace, joy and love for all of humanity. He is also the first saint to bear the stigmata of Christ.

The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius by Saint Ignatius of Loyola (Book)

St. Ignatius of Loyola was a Catholic priest & founder of the Jesuits (Society of Jesus) who lived in the 16th century. As a theologian, he composed the 30-day spiritual exercises to teach the reader how to pray, meditate, contemplate, & examine one’s own life to draw closer to God. The spiritual exercises are often used by spiritual directors to help one discern and uncover God’s will for one’s life.

SACRED TRIDUUM SCHEDULE (including Easter)

With Lent ending on Holy Thursday, the holiest 3 days of the year get underway then with the Sacred Triduum (with “triduum” being a Latin word for “a span or space of 3 days.”) The Triduum is comprised of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday. It runs from Holy Thursday evening till Easter Sunday evening. Here is the schedule for our Triduum celebrations at Parish of the Holy Family (and especially note the Easter Sunday Mass schedule change!): On Holy Thursday, April 2nd, the Mass of the Lord’s Supper begins at 7 p.m., with adoration following till 11 p.m. On Good Friday, “the Passion of the Lord” Service will take place at 3 p.m., with a Vietnamese prayer service at 7:30 p.m. On Holy Saturday, April 4th, there will be no 4 p.m. Saturday Mass that day. The Easter Vigil will take place that Saturday night at 8 p.m. On Easter Sunday, Masses will be at 7:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m. and the 11:30 a.m. Vietnamese Mass. There will be no 5 p.m. Mass on Easter Sunday, April 5th! Please note these on your calendars. We hope to see you at these celebrations!

Diocesan Day of Penance

Make the most of this Lenten opportunity for spiritual renewal on the Diocese’s “Day of Penance.” Our parish, along with other parishes around the diocese, will have confessions on Tuesday, March 24th, from 12 to 6 p.m. Two priests will be available to hear confessions throughout that period. Come and experience God’s merciful love through God’s gift to the Church: the healing Sacrament of Reconciliation.

St. Frances of Rome
Feastday March 9

Francesca Bussa de' Leoni, known as Frances of Rome Obl.S.B., was an Italian Catholic mystic, organizer of charitable services and a Benedictine oblate who founded a religious community of oblates, who share a common life without religious vows.

St. Frances of Rome (1384–1440) is the patron saint of motorists and automobile drivers, a patronage declared by Pope Pius XI in 1925 due to legends of her guardian angel lighting her path. She is also recognized as the patron saint of widows, Benedictine oblates, and against the plague. She was Canonized by Pope Paul V on May 29, 1608.

Prayer: Saint Frances of Rome, you loved God with all your heart and served Him at every stage of your life. Please pray for me, that I may learn how to serve God within my vocation, never seeking anything other than His holy and perfect will. Saint Frances, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Amen.

PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

God of Love, Our World is wrought with war and violence, as brother turns on brother, and the innocent awake to gunfire and bombs.

May Your compassion and healing move hearts and bring a new day to Ukraine. Fortify your children to resist aggression and instead become instruments of peace. We ask this in the name of the One who is the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ— Amen

Stations of the Cross

The Stations of the Cross is a powerful and simple way to reflect on the final moments of Jesus' life. Join us as we journey with Him here at the Parish of the Holy Family.

You can follow the Cross and acolyte personally making your way from one station to another and saying the prayers. Or you can remain seated or kneeling as they move from station to station while all present make the responses.

We begin on every Tuesday through Holy Week at 7:00 PM in our Church. Sacrifice for Lent. Join us as we journey together with our Savior.

Prayer is an essential part of the Lenten experience. It connects us with our loving God, who always gives us the help and strength we need to serve him and others. The Little Black Books on the entryway tables contain helpful words of prayer and meditation for each day of the season of Lent. Please take one. In addition, there are weekly opportunities during Lent for prayer.

MH—Office Building -Lower Level Main Hall

So awesome, that our very busy campus has three Faith Formation programs up and running- the Vietnamese Community on Sundays, St. Theodore's on Monday nights and Parish of the Holy Family on Wednesday nights. Two of our Faith Formation Directors (Jeanne at Parish of the Holy Family and Maureen at St. Theodore's) are making progress getting to know the many wonderful people of this community and appreciate your understanding of the extra safety precautions with doors being locked for the safety of staff and students during classes on Monday and Wednesday nights. Our hall monitors remain available to open the doors for you. The usage of the building remains the same while classes are not in session.

Five of our families are beginning the preparation process for the celebration of Eucharist for the first time in April. Please keep them in prayer as they make this next step in their journey of faith.

Five of our teens are in the midst of final preparation to celebrate Confirmation this spring, working with those at St. Theodore's completing the last of their Sacraments of Initiation. Please keep them and their families in prayer as they work to celebrate this sacrament to complete their Sacraments of Initiation.

We continue our weekly lessons, with week two of the Scrutinies and the Man Born Blind.

Faithfully,

Jeanne Pavlina

The Confessional or Reconciliation Room

This quiet space in the church is designed to offer either anonymity behind a screen or face-to-face interaction with a priest to engage in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. There are typically kneelers, a screen, and chairs in the space. Either type of space is created to offer absolute confidentiality. If you would like to experience the Sacrament of Reconciliation during Lent, but haven't gone in awhile, here is a quick review of the steps:

1. Choose to sit either face-to-face with the priest, in a chair sitting across from him or kneel behind the screen where you will be hidden.
2. After the priest greets you, make the Sign of the Cross.
3. Next, say: "Bless me Father, for I have sinned, it has been ____ since my last confession, and these are my sins: (Confess your sins). Telling the priest how long it has been simply gives him context to help offer guidance and suitable penance.
4. The priest may offer advice and give you a penance.
5. The person then says an Act of Contrition to the Priest.
6. The Priest offers the Prayer of Absolution over the person.

Trong Thánh Thần và Chân Lý

Trong một câu chuyện ngụ ngôn “Những Sinh Vật của Thói Quen”, kể rằng có hai vợ chồng bác nông dân kia cảm thấy cần phải sửa chữa cái chuồng gia súc cũ. Nóc chuồng thì dột, một vài tấm ván ghép tường bị mục, còn sàn chuồng bằng đất lại lồi lõm nên bị đọng nước mỗi khi trời mưa. Thế rồi chuồng mới được xây lên và chuồng cũ bị phá hủy trước khi mùa đông đến.

Sáng hôm sau, trước khi đi phố mua thêm đồ dùng, bác cho gia súc ra đồng cỏ và để cửa chuồng mở phòng hờ nhỡ khi thời tiết đổi xấu. Mà thật, thời tiết trở nên xấu thậm tệ. Nhiệt độ xuống thấp dần, mưa bắt đầu rơi và nước mưa chuyển thành băng. Bác nông dân cảm thấy rất vui khi nghĩ mấy con vật giờ đang được ấm áp trong căn chuồng mới. Khi bác về tới nhà liền đi thẳng ra chuồng thú vật, nhưng căn chuồng trống rỗng chẳng có con vật nào cả. Bác vội chạy ra ngoài tìm kiếm và thấy một cảnh thật lạ lùng. Đó là mấy con vật trông thật tội nghiệp, chúng nép vào vó nhau và trên lưng chúng thì phủ đầy băng tuyết; đồng thời chúng lại đứng trên cái nền chuồng cũ, cảnh ấy thật là Những Sinh Vật của Thói Quen.

Chúng ta thờ Chúa không phải chỉ làm những việc theo thói quen như đi nhà thờ hay đọc kinh nhưng phải thờ Chúa trong cả đời sống chúng ta.

Vào thời Chúa Giêsu thì người Samaritanô là những người xua ly khai và tách mình khỏi dân tộc Do thái. Không như người Do thái thờ Thiên Chúa tại đền thờ trên núi Sion ở Giêrusalem, người Samaritanô đã thờ Chúa Trời tại đền thờ trên núi Garizim. Bởi đó phụ nữ kia đã nói với Chúa Giêsu: “Tôi thấy Ngài là một tiên tri, vậy xin Ngài hãy nói với tôi tại sao cha ông chúng tôi thờ Chúa Trời trên núi này trong khi những người Do thái các ông lại nói phải thờ tại Giêrusalem?” Chúa Giêsu trả lời: “Hãy tin Ta, vì khi giờ đến thì người ta không còn thờ phượng Chúa Cha trên núi này hay tại Giêrusalem... Nhưng khi giờ đến, mà thật sự nó đã đến rồi, thì những người thật sự thờ Thiên Chúa sẽ tin thờ Chúa Cha trong tinh thần và chân lý; đó chính là điều Chúa Cha muốn” (Ga 4, 20.21.23).

“Thờ Chúa Cha trong tinh thần và sự thật”, qua những lời đó Chúa Giêsu đã hướng quan niệm về việc thờ phượng Thiên Chúa từ nơi chốn sang tính cách. Tức là việc tôn thờ Thiên Chúa hệ tại không phải là “ở đâu” nhưng là “thế nào”. Người ta sẽ không còn cho rằng Thiên Chúa chỉ ẩn mình trong những bức tường của đền thờ thế gian, hay Ngài chỉ quanh quẩn đâu đấy như trên đỉnh núi chẳng hạn. Thật sự, người ta sẽ thờ Chúa trong tinh thần và chân lý, và Nhà của Chúa được tìm thấy trong tâm hồn con người. Người ta không dựa vào thói quen nhưng mặc lấy tinh thần của Chúa.

Thánh Phaolô đã nhắc nhở chúng ta phải tẩy sạch một số thói quen. Ngài nói, “Anh em hãy vất bỏ tất cả những gì thuộc về thế gian: gian dâm ô uế, đam mê sai trái, dục vọng xấu xa, tham lam ăn uống, giận dữ, nóng nảy, thù hận, chữ thề và ngôn từ lăng loàn... anh em hãy dứt khoát với mọi thói quen ấy” (Col 3:5-7). Kể cũng lạ, vì có rất nhiều trong chúng ta đi nhà thờ, đọc Thánh Kinh, bàn về đạo lý nhưng vẫn cứ để cho những tính xấu ấy làm chủ đời mình.

Hơn nữa, Thánh Phaolô nói rằng chúng ta cần phải thay đổi những tập quán xấu bằng những tập quán tốt. Ngài nói, “Hãy mặc lấy, hỡi những người được Chúa tuyển chọn, lòng quan tâm trác ẩn, tốt lành, khiêm nhường, quảng đại, nhẫn nại, chia sẻ nỗi buồn, tha thứ mọi lỗi lầm anh em xúc phạm tới người, và trên hết hãy mặc lấy tình yêu” (Col 3:12-14).

Xin cho chúng con thật sự thờ Chúa trong tinh thần và chân lý, trong cả cuộc sống chúng con.

March 15- Fourth Sunday of Lent

First Reading: 1 Samuel 16:1, 6-7, 10-13 / Second Reading: Ephesians 5:8-14 / Gospel Reading: John 9:1-41

Many of us know people who have become either completely or partially blind due to accident or disease. Few of us know blind people who have received the ability to see for the first time. In both cases, the contrast between darkness and light is startling. Light opens to us a world of possibilities, freedom of movement, and an ability to comprehend our world. Darkness, on the other hand, limits our options, restricts our freedom to move around freely, and obscures our world.

All of us realize that we live in a real, concrete, physical world, but are we equally aware that we concurrently live in a real spiritual world? One reality we can see, hear, and feel; the other is more elusive to our comprehension. However, its effects can be readily recognized. Some of us see well in the earthly realm, even with 20/20 vision, but in the realm of the Spirit, we are practically blind. Which is the worst tragedy: to be physically blind, or to be spiritually blind?

Like Samuel in next week's first reading, it is easy for us to mistakenly make spiritual judgments based on physical appearances. This is unfortunate, for one's physical appearance, good looks, charismatic personality, and fashionable bearing can often mask a person's less attractive spiritual condition. To primarily view people on outward appearances is a form of spiritual blindness which we should abandon.

The Lord, on the other hand, looks through people's outward shell to view the spiritual quality of their inner life. This kind of spiritual vision and insight must come from the Lord, and from having our mind transformed to think in light of the truths of sacred Scripture and the values found in the Word of God.

Fanny Crosby, the prolific Christian hymn writer, lost her physical sight as a young child. However, it is obvious through her hymns that she was a person who could wonderfully see with the spiritual eyes of her heart. We get a glimpse of her spiritual insight in the following poem:

"Oh, what a happy soul am I! Although I cannot see,
I am resolved that in this world, contented I will be.
How many blessings I enjoy that other people don't,
To weep and sigh because I'm blind, I cannot and I won't."

Like the blind man in next week's Gospel reading, there is no shame in recognizing our blindness. rather there is wisdom in doing so. For only when we recognize our blindness can we appeal to Jesus for healing and new sight. Jesus stands ready to make the "sightless see." The only question is: are we ready to admit our need, believe that he does and will give us spiritual insight, and ask him for healing?
